

Above, Living room/media room looks up to balcony and double stairways leading to bedrooms.

Right, Kitchen/Dining room enjoys the view of a truly incredible backyard.

Below, A challenging "open space" dining room becomes a more formal room with the use of classic window treatments and chandelier.

same time. When the decision was made that all would live together in the renovated "old homestead" including a new baby, on the way, the "fun" began.

Each time we tackled one project, another cropped up with greater challenges. Ultimately, the entire house was redone from top to bottom, including the outside property. The wonder of

